DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-24, drawn to method of controlling the electrical/mechanical power applied to loads.

Group II, claim(s) 25-29, drawn to methods of moving a fluid or generating power from a fluid.

Group III, claim(s) 30-35, drawn to a method for operating a radiation emitting device.

Group IV, claim(s) 36-37, drawn to methods for charging/discharging rechargeable batteries.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I, II, III and IV do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: a) independent claims 1, 18, 25, 27, 30, and 36-37 do not share the same special technical feature, hence, all of the claims are not particularly directed to substantially the same inventive concept or subject matter; b) the special technical feature of claim 1 i.e. the pulse train is known in the art as evidenced by US 5942858, and therefore, it does not provide a contribution over the prior art.

In addition, further restriction is required. Thus, applicant must elect one (1) of the group above one (1) of the species below as applicable to the finally elected group.

3. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species of Group I (applicable to Group I only):

Art Unit: 1745

- a) the method of controlling the electrical power applied to a load by pulse train (claims 1-17);
- b) the method of controlling the mechanical power applied to a load by changes in acceleration (claims 18-24);

Species of Group II (applicable to Group II only):

- a) the method of moving a fluid using an impact member by providing power (claims 25-26);
- b) the method of generating power from a fluid using an impact member by providing fluid to rotate the member (claims 27-29);

Species of Group IV (applicable to Group IV only):

- a) the method for discharging a battery (claim 36);
- b) the method for charging a rechargeable battery (claim 37);

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

4. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:
Refer to the specific species-claim listing above.

Art Unit: 1745

The following claim(s) are generic: no claim appears to be generic.

5. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: : a) independent claims 1, 18, 25, 27, 30, and 36-37 do not share the same special technical feature, hence, all of the claims are not particularly directed to substantially the same inventive concept or subject matter; b) the special technical feature of claim 1 i.e. the pulse train is known in the art as evidenced by US 5942858, and therefore, it does not provide a contribution over the prior art.

6. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
